Project: 820 Isenberg Redevelopment Plan

FAI Project No: #17025

Subject: Stadium Bowl-O-Drome Character-Defining Features Report

Introduction and Scope

Majority of the items in the Stadium Bowl-O-Drome are considered character-defining features due to their presence in the original structure, built in 1955, and their ability to convey the historic character of the building and site. Although installations of these items are not dated, it is apparent which items are from the 1960s era, and presumably a part of the original structure. Few of the items noted as salvageable are considered modern bowling equipment, or replacements. This list of potentially salvageable historic items has been compiled for Department of Hawaiian Homelands' (Client) consideration in the planning of the 820 Isenberg Redevelopment Project. Feasibility and cost shall be determined by Client and project planning team. Individually salvaged items may act as an educational component detailing the history of the building and should be considered for incorporation in the future DHHL 820 Isenberg Redevelopment Project.

Summary:

The Stadium Bowl-O-Drome is significant for its association with the history of bowling on Oahu and of local bowling alley architecture of the 1950s. As one of four remaining post-war bowling alley structures extant on Oahu, majority of the items in the Stadium Bowl-O-Drome are presumed to be from the 1950s /1960s, maintaining their association with the original structure on the site. Certain items recall the history of the sport on an international level while others do so on a unique local level. This is seen in the various bowling equipment that can be traced back to the manufacturer and approximate date of production, such as the automated pin setters which Brunswick began producing in 1955, and in the mural painted in an amateur regional style by local artist Jackie Anderson, which depicts a fictional scene of Hawaiians bowling.

Recommendations:

- Abatement of hazardous materials on all salvaged items as directed by an abatement professional.
- Implementing salvageable items in the DHHL 820 Isenberg Redevelopment Project as display or interactive items to serve as educational components of the building's history.
- Re-create, replicate, or reprint unsalvageable or significantly deteriorated items that are historically associated with the building.
- Auction items related to the building's history.
- Repurpose or donate salvageable construction materials, such as bowling lane wood.
- Donate or sell salvageable mechanical equipment to active bowling alleys if possible.
- Evaluate mural for feasibility of conservation.
- Under HRS chapter 6E-8 and Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act, continue consultation with the State Historic Preservation Division as to the disposition of materials as potential mitigation and redevelopment of the Bowl-O-Drome site.
